MUSEUM

WHAT IS Play Sharity?

CHILDREN'S MUSEUM + COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Sharing hands-on learning with children by involving them in science, art, and culture.

Inspiring young leaders to activate sharing and charity in their communities.

In the New Mexico Needs Assessment, underrepresented populations reported amplified needs for basic programs such as spaces for community gathering and education programs (2022).

In well-resourced communities, preschool children spend more than 80% of their waking hours engaged in informal learning experiences outside of school. (National Library of Medicine, 2022).

PROGRAM initiatives

Along with The iina of Wool exhibit, we hope to partner with organizations to host weaving events for children and families to participate in. The space will allow for demonstrations, after school or summer classes, and workshops.

PRIORITIES IN PLANNING

- Forming a cultural exhibits committee for authenticity, program planning, and cultural responsiveness.
- Connecting with local shepherds, weavers, artists, and organizations to collaborate ideas and practices.
- Hiring local carpenters, designers, and artists to build the exhibit.
- Facilitating exhibit testing groups to receive feedback from the community on the cultural responsiveness.
- All replenishable materials will be purchased from local distributors.

PROGRAMS

UNITE

A two-hour session allowing incarcerated parents time with their child at the children's museum supporting bonding, connections, and healthy relationships.

PARENTS NIGHTS

Parents nights for different groups of parents who might need support based on circumstances: LGBTQ parents, parents of children with Autism, foster parents, and much more.

NEURODIVERSE PLAYTIME

Weekly time set aside for neurodiverse kids to play without being overstimulated and provide support for parents.

TOTS SPOT

Every Thursday, toddlers and adults can join for a two-hour session in the museum. Parents can connect with other organizations' booths that provide resources for toddler development.

Play Sharity Gallup

CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

The Play Sharity Foundation exists “to promote child and family well-being, sharing of resources to advance education, affordability of high-quality educational materials, the discovery and nurturing of every human’s gifts and allowing every human to experience a fulfilling charitable life.”

2018 Play Sharity Foundation was established in Deming, New Mexico.

2020 Play Sharity Foundation opened their first location in Deming, NM. Scan the code for a tour of their facility on opening day.

APRIL 2023 Gallup started a pop-up museum at local events like Arts Crawl.

JULY 2023 Gallup partnered with Play Sharity and will open a second location of Play Sharity in Gallup.

OCT 2023 Gallup hosted their first annual fundraiser called a Day of Play with about 500 people in attendance.

FUTURE GOALS

DEC 2024 Open a physical location with eight exhibits to reach 10,000 people with equitable resources

JUN 2024 Increase operational hours with part-time staff and provide summer programming.

DEC 2028 Purchasing a permanent location with an outdoor facility and increase the number of exhibits offered.
